Governor Eric Greitens (R-MO)

Biography: Eric Greitens has served as the Governor of Missouri since 2017. Greitens was a Rhodes Scholar at the University of Oxford and earned a PhD in philosophy. He later became a Lieutenant Commander of the Navy SEAL, serving four tours of duty around the world, commanding an Al-Qaeda targeting cell and earning a Bronze Star and a Purple Heart among other decorations.

Following his military service, Greitens founded The Mission Continues, a non-profit organization serving veterans which he led until 2014. His work led Time Magazine to recognize him on their list of the 100 most influential people in the world in 2013.

Note: In June 2010, Major League Baseball announced Greitens as a winner in People Magazine's All-Stars Among Us competition. He represented the city of St. Louis and the Cardinals at the 2010 All-Star Game in Anaheim, California
